Advance Health Care Directive Assistance

Do you and your loved ones know your preferences for medical care if you are unable to express your wishes? An Advance Health Care Directive will inform your caregivers of your preferences.

Our well-trained volunteers will:

- Answer your questions about Advance Health Care Directives
- Explain the medical and legal language in the documents
- Help you complete the Advance Health Care Directive and other appropriate forms
- Witness signature and provide copies for physicians and agents

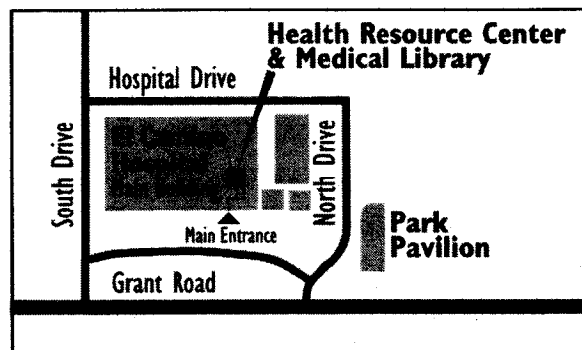

There is no charge for this service, but donations are appreciated.

To make an appointment for your free Advance Health Care Directive consultation, please call 650-988-7622.

Affiliation with El Camino Hospital not required to use services of the Health Resource Center & Medical Library.
